TANTRA

Marketing counts leads. Sales counts deals. Nobody owns the middle.

Old way vs new way, in six rows →

Seven steps. Two teams count two of them.

1	Stranger
2	Attention
3	Lead	Marketing counts this: leads
4	Nurtured	Nobody owns
5	Qualified	Nobody owns
6	Buyer	Sales counts this: deals
7	Paid

The handoff between Nurtured and Qualified is where revenue leaks.

23%

of 2,241 US companies never responded to a web lead at all.

Firms that tried to reach a lead within an hour were nearly 7 times as likely to qualify it as firms that waited an hour longer.

Source: Harvard Business Review, “The Short Life of Online Sales Leads”, 2011: an audit of 2,241 companies, and a separate study of 1.25 million leads. One author ran a lead-response company.

Who owns the path

OLD WAY

Nobody. It sits between two teams.

NEW WAY

One owner. One system.

The numbers

OLD WAY

Leads in one tool, deals in another.

NEW WAY

Seven steps. One set of numbers.

Follow-up

OLD WAY

Whenever someone remembers.

NEW WAY

Timed on every channel, every time.

Who does the work

OLD WAY

You, an SDR or an agency.

NEW WAY

An AI agent, through every tool's API.

Your tools

OLD WAY

Bought one by one. Never joined.

NEW WAY

Connected once. Run as one.

When it breaks

OLD WAY

Found at the end of the quarter.

NEW WAY

The weakest step, flagged every week.

TANTRA

Three things to do this week

1. Write the seven steps on one line. Put last month's count under each.
2. Agree one written definition of "qualified" that both teams sign.
3. Put a clock on the handoff: every new lead touched within one business hour.

Day 1 of the workshop

The 3-Day AI RevOps Workshop

Next cohort Wed 28 Oct · 11:00 AM ET · three live sessions

You build the engine with us, not notes about it. Link in the comments.