The 1-in-5 Post and DM Flow

Posts that only teach never start a conversation. Posts that always ask wear people out. Teach four times, invite a reply once, then follow up twice and stop.

The post mix

POST	TYPE	WHAT IT DOES
1	Teach	One problem your buyer has, in their words
2	Teach	One step of how you solve it
3	Teach	A worked example
4	Teach	A common mistake and the fix
5	Invite	Teach one thing, then ask a question people can answer in one line

The DM flow after a reply

WHEN	MESSAGE	YOUR WORDS
Day 0	Answer their reply, ask one question. No pitch.
Day 3	One short follow-up that adds one useful thing.
Day 10	The last follow-up. Then you stop.

The rules

1. About one post in five invites
   The other four earn the right to ask.
2. Reply to every comment in the first hour
   By hand, never with a tool or a pod.
3. Two follow-ups, then stop
   Day 3 and day 10. No reply after that is an answer.

The prompt that writes it

Write my invite post and DM flow

```
YOUR TASK
Write my reply-inviting post and the DM flow that follows it.

THE FACTS TO USE
My buyer and their problem: [FILL]
The one useful thing I can send: [FILL: a resource, an example or a short answer]

RULES
- The post teaches first, then asks a question people can answer in one line.
- DM 1 answers their reply and asks one question. No pitch.
- Day 3: one short follow-up that adds one useful thing.
- Day 10: the last follow-up. Then stop.
- Plain words, no hype, no fake urgency.

WHAT TO RETURN
The post, then DM 1, the day 3 message and the day 10 message.

CHECK BEFORE YOU ANSWER
Each DM is under 60 words and asks at most one question.
