the old vs the new way to fill a sales calendar...

OLD WAY

NEW WAY

which one are you running?

OLD WAY

a bought list.

NEW WAY

one list of your whole market.

Your CRM, LinkedIn searches and past registrants, merged before anything goes out.

the invite

OLD WAY

a cold blast.

NEW WAY

a merge-field invite in their calendar.

Merge fields only: first name, company, role.

the trust

OLD WAY

one 30-minute call doing everything.

NEW WAY

a session that earns trust with a room.

Teach first, then make the offer once.

the fix

OLD WAY

guesswork.

NEW WAY

one number and one change a week.

Find the weakest number, change one thing, re-run and log it.

the AI

a chatbot draft.

an engine that sends, reminds, books and logs.

A person still approves every message before it goes out.

ALL 5 PAIRS

the whole swap, on one page

OLD WAY	NEW WAY
a bought list	one list of your whole market
a cold blast	a merge-field invite in their calendar
one 30-minute call doing everything	a session that earns trust with a room
guesswork	one number and one change a week
a chatbot draft	an engine that sends, reminds, books and logs
