01

COLD EMAIL

channel 1 of 5

WHAT IT'S FOR

Reaching buyers who have never heard of you, at volume.

NEEDS FIRST

Separate look-alike domains, never your main one. A two-week warm-up before the first send.

THE NUMBER TO WATCH

Bounces.

Over 5%: pause that campaign today.

02

LINKEDIN

channel 2 of 5

WHAT IT'S FOR

One-to-one conversations with the named buyers you want in the room.

NEEDS FIRST

A note under 300 characters. 15 to 20 requests a day per profile, and one tool per profile.

THE NUMBER TO WATCH

Replies to the note.

Withdraw any request still pending after 14 days.

03

CALENDAR INVITES

channel 3 of 5

WHAT IT'S FOR

Putting the session date straight into the buyer's own calendar.

NEEDS FIRST

Sent 8 to 12 days out. A title under 60 characters, and the first two lines say who it's for.

THE NUMBER TO WATCH

Yes RSVPs.

Each reply comes back Yes, No or Maybe. Make No one click, and final.

04

POSTS

channel 4 of 5

WHAT IT'S FOR

Warming up the people who already follow you.

NEEDS FIRST

Date every post first. One post about the event every 3 days, with the link in the first comment.

THE NUMBER TO WATCH

Conversations started.

Log each one: Conversation, Call Booked, Call Held.

05

ADS

channel 5 of 5

WHAT IT'S FOR

Buying more of the traffic that already converts.

NEEDS FIRST

A landing page that converts: the form above the fold on a laptop.

THE NUMBER TO WATCH

Sign-up rate.

Scale at 1.5% conversion and 3% click-through. Not before.

PICK YOUR FIRST TWO

two you run well beat five you run badly

05 ADS — Only once the page converts

Cold email and LinkedIn need no audience and no ad budget. Ads only pay once the page they send people to already converts.

ALL FIVE STEP BY STEP

We walk through all five channels in our free live workshop.

What each channel is for, what it needs before you switch it on, and the one number to watch.
